The mice go on a picnic

The mice went on a picnic. They took lots of cheese.

Soon a very tired and hungry cat came.

The cat saw the little mouse chasing butterflies.

The cat dressed like a butterfly. The little mouse went near the butterfly-cat.

The little mouse's brother and sister were worried and searching for him.

They saw the footprints of the little mouse and the cat.

The cat was ready to cook the little mouse for dinner. He would make mouse soup.

Then a ghost appeared.

The cat ran far away.

The ghost was the little mouse's brother and sister.
